

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

JUAN M. MONTENEGRO,

Plaintiff,

v.

DR. ANTHONY,

Defendant.

No. 1:23-cv-00474 KES GSA (PC)

FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

ORDER RECOMMENDING DISMISSAL OF
THIS MATTER FOR FAILURE TO PROSECUTE AND FOR FAILURE TO OBEY
A COURT ORDER

(ECF No. 19)

PLAINTIFF'S OBJECTIONS DUE IN FOURTEEN DAYS

Plaintiff, a state prisoner proceeding pro se and in forma pauperis, has filed this civil rights action seeking relief under 42 U.S.C. § 1983. The matter was referred to a United States Magistrate Judge pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B) and Local Rule 302.

For the reasons stated below, the undersigned will recommend that this matter be dismissed without prejudice due to Plaintiff's failure to prosecute and his failure to obey a court order. Plaintiff will have fourteen days to file objections to this order.

I. RELEVANT FACTS

On March 21, 2025, Plaintiff's complaint was screened. ECF No. 19. In the screening order, the Court found that the complaint failed to state an Eighth Amendment claim against Defendant. See id. at 8. As a result, Plaintiff was ordered either to file an amended complaint, to

1 file a notice with the Court indicating that he wished to stand on the complaint as screened, or to
2 voluntarily dismiss the complaint. Id. Plaintiff was given thirty days to take one of these courses
3 of action. Id.

4 More than thirty days have passed and Plaintiff has not responded to the Court's order,
5 nor has he filed a request for an extension of time to do so. In addition, the Court's docket does
6 not indicate that the Court's screening order was returned to it marked "undeliverable." See 7 generally docket.

8 II. APPLICABLE LAW

9 A. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(b) and Local Rule 110

10 Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41 permits this Court to dismiss a matter if a plaintiff fails
11 to prosecute or he fails to comply with a court order. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b). Local Rule 110
12 also permits the imposition of sanctions when a party fails to comply with a court order. L.R.
13 110. Only in rare cases will an appellate court question the exercise of discretion in connection
14 with the application of local rules. See Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995)
15 (upholding dismissal of case pursuant to district court local rule because plaintiff failed to file 16 opposition to defendants' motion to compel/motion to dismiss).

17 B. Malone Factors

18 The Ninth Circuit has clearly identified the factors to consider when dismissing a case for 19 failure to comply with a court order. It writes:

20
21 A district court must weigh five factors in determining whether to dismiss a case
22 for failure to comply with a court order: "(1) the public's interest in expeditious 23 resolution of litigation; (2) the court's need to manage its docket; (3) the risk of 24 prejudice to the defendants; (4) the public policy favoring disposition of cases on 25 their merits; and (5) the availability of less drastic sanctions."

26 Malone v. United States Postal Service, 833 F.2d 128, 130 (9th Cir. 1987) (quoting Thompson v.
Hous. Auth. of City of Los Angeles, 782 F.2d 829 (9th Cir. 1986) (per curiam)).

27 III. DISCUSSION

28 A. Rule 41(b) and Local Rule 110 Support Dismissal of This Case

1 The fact that Plaintiff has: (1) failed to file a response to the Court’s screening order, and
 2 (2) failed to request an extension of time to do so within the time allotted, both collectively
 3 warrant dismissal of this matter, in accord with Rule 41(b). This inaction on Plaintiff’s part also 4 warrants the imposition of sanctions in the form of dismissal of this case, consistent with Local 5 Rule 110.

6 B. Application of Malone Factors Supports the Dismissal of This Case

7 1. Expeditious Resolution of Litigation; Court’s Need to Manage Its Docket

8 Plaintiff has been given more than ample time to file a response to Court’s screening
 9 order, either by filing an amended complaint; by notifying the Court that he wishes to stand on 10 the screened complaint, or by voluntarily dismissing this action. Despite this fact, Plaintiff has 11 failed to take any of these steps, nor has he contacted the Court to provide exceptional reasons for 12 not having done so.

13 The Eastern District Court has an unusually large caseload.¹ “[T]he goal of fairly 14 dispensing justice . . . is compromised when the Court is forced to devote its limited resources to 15 the processing of frivolous and repetitious requests.” Whitaker v. Superior Court of San 16 Francisco, 514 U.S. 208, 210 (1994) (brackets added) (citation omitted). Thus, it follows that 17 keeping this case on the Court’s docket when Plaintiff’s complete inaction in response to the 18 Court’s screening order indicates that has no interest in prosecuting this case in a timely manner,
 19 is not a good use of the Court’s already taxed resources. Moreover, keeping this matter on the 20 docket until Plaintiff chooses to respond would clearly be an exercise in futility, and it would stall
 21 a quicker disposition of this case. Finally, in fairness to the many other litigants who currently 22 have cases before the Court, no additional time should be spent on this matter, irrespective of any 23

24 ¹ The Eastern District of California carries one of the largest and most heavily weighted
 25 caseloads in the nation. See Office of the Clerk, United States District Court, Eastern District of 26 California, 2024 Annual Report, “Weighted Filings,” p. 35 (2024) (“[O]ur weighted caseload far 27 exceeds the national average . . . ranking us fourth in the nation and first in the Ninth Circuit.”).
 28 This problem is compounded by a shortage of jurists to review its pending matters. See generally id. (stating 2024 Biennial Judgeship Survey recommended request for four additional permanent judgeships for Eastern District of California).

1 opposition to the instant recommendation of dismissal that Plaintiff might file after the issuance
2 of this order.

3 2. Risk of Prejudice to Defendants

4 Furthermore, because the only named defendant has not yet been served with the 5 complaint, nor become a part of this case, dismissing it will not prejudice the named Defendant.
6 On the contrary, dismissal will benefit defendant because he will avoid a possible judgment being
7 levied against him.

8 3. Availability of Less Drastic Sanctions; Favored Disposition of Cases on 9 Merits

10 Finally, Plaintiff has failed to respond to the Court's screening order for over three months
11 now, and during that period he has not indicated to the Court in any way that he has any interest
12 in continuing to prosecute this case. Given the fact that the Court's screening order served on 13 Plaintiff was not returned to it marked "undeliverable," this permits this Court to find that 14 Plaintiff has received the Court's screening order but that he is simply choosing not to respond to 15 it. See generally Local Rule 182(f) (stating absent notice otherwise, service of documents at prior 16 address of pro se party is fully effective).

17 The Court's finding that Plaintiff is simply choosing not to respond to the Court's 18 screening order and prosecute this case is further supported by the fact that a recent search on the 19 California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation's website for Plaintiff by his name
20 and/or his prison ID number indicates that Plaintiff is still in state custody.² The Court takes 21 judicial notice of this fact. See Fed. R. Evid. 201 (court may take judicial notice of facts that are 22 capable of accurate determination by sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned).
23 Thus, in the aggregate, without Plaintiff continuing to take an active role to move this matter
24 forward, it cannot be disposed of on its merits.

1 For these reasons, consistent with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(b) and Local Rule
2 110, and having considered the Malone factors, the undersigned recommends that this matter be
3 dismissed without prejudice for failure to prosecute and for failure to obey a court order. Plaintiff
4 shall be given fourteen days to file objections to this order.

5 Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY RECOMMENDED that:

6 1. This matter be DISMISSED without prejudice for failure to prosecute and for failure
7 to obey a court order. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b) and Local Rule 110, and

8 2. This case be CLOSED.

9 These findings and recommendations are submitted to the United States District Judge
10 assigned to this case, pursuant to the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1). Within fourteen days
11 after being served with these findings and recommendations, Plaintiff may file written objections
12 with the Court. Such a document should be captioned “Objections to Magistrate Judge’s Findings 13 and Recommendations,” and it shall not exceed fifteen pages.

14 The Court will not consider exhibits attached to the objections. To the extent that Plaintiff
15 wishes to refer to any exhibit, when possible, he must reference the exhibit in the record by its 16 CM/ECF document and page number or reference the exhibit with specificity. Any pages filed in 17 excess of the fifteen-page limit may be disregarded by the District Judge when conducting the 28
18 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(C) review of the findings and recommendations. Plaintiff’s failure to file
19 objections within the specified time may result in the waiver of certain rights on appeal. See 20 Wilkerson v. Wheeler, 772 F.3d 834, 839 (9th Cir. 2014); Martinez v. Ylst, 951 F.2d 1153 (9th 21 Cir. 1991).

23 IT IS SO ORDERED.
